
Press release Peace in the Park 2014, September 10

PEACE FESTIVAL IN THE 'PALEISTUIN' (PALACE GARDEN)

On Sunday September 21 between 12.00 - 18.00, the festival 'Peace in the Park' will take place in the Palace Garden in the Centre of The Hague. It offers a programme for personal peace. It is part of the new Just Peace weekend September 19 - 21. On September 21 The Hague will be celebrating the UN Day of Peace.

Peace in the Park aims to inspire those living in The Hague to personally take 'the first small step towards peace' in their attitude and peaceful behaviour in their own surroundings. For that purpose the festival offers workshops, meditation, dialogue, music and movement. Tea, coffee, soft drinks and a children's programme will be available. The Palace Garden is situated on the Prinsessewal, behind the Noordeinde Palace.

The festival, organised for the second time by the Foundation Peace in the Park, is being subsidised by the City, Fonds 1818 and Just Peace. The programme and inspiration can be found on the site www.peaceinthepark.eu.

Info:

Spokesperson is Willemijn Lambert, communicatie@peaceinthepark.eu, 06-21224612.

Press information and photos can be found on www.peaceinthepark.eu.

For more information on Just Peace, visit www.justpeacethehague.com
